COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

-----X

Plaintiff Rudi Reyes (“Plaintiff Reyes” or “Mr. Reyes”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, CSM Legal, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against Domenics Family Pizza Inc (d/b/a Emilio's Original Gourmet Pizza), (“Defendant Corporation”) and Emilio Palmeli, (“Individual Defendant”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Reyes is a former employee of Defendants Domenics Family Pizza Inc (d/b/a Emilio's Original Gourmet Pizza) and Emilio Palmeli.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a pizzeria, located at 1015 Allerton Ave, Bronx, NY 10469 under the name “Emilio's Original Gourmet Pizza”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendant Emilio Palmeli, serve or served as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Reyes was employed as a cook at the restaurant located at 1015 Allerton Ave, Bronx, NY 10469.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Reyes worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Reyes appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Reyes the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Reyes to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Reyes and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Reyes now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Reyes seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Reyes’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a pizzeria located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Reyes was employed by Defendants in this district.

PARTIES

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

20. Defendants operate a pizzeria located in the Allerton section of the Bronx.

21. Individual Defendant, Emilio Palmeli, possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, possesses ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

25. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Reyes and/or similarly situated individuals.

26. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Emilio Palmeli operates Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of himself and/or fails to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from himself, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,
- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,

- e) operating Defendant Corporation for his own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of his own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect his own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

27. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Reyes's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff Reyes, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Reyes's services.

28. In each year from 2020 to 2022, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

29. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the restaurant on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

30. Plaintiff Reyes is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a cook.

31. Plaintiff Reyes seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Rudi Reyes

32. Plaintiff Reyes was employed by Defendants from approximately May 2020 until on or about June 9, 2022.

33. Defendants employed Plaintiff Reyes as a cook.

34. Plaintiff Reyes regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

35. Plaintiff Reyes's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

36. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Reyes regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

37. From approximately May 2020 until on or about June 9, 2022, Plaintiff Reyes worked from approximately 10:00 a.m. until on or about 8:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and from approximately 10:00 a.m. until on or about 9:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays (typically 62 hours per week).

38. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Reyes his wages in cash.

39. From approximately May 2020 until on or about June 9, 2022, Defendants paid Plaintiff Reyes a fixed salary of $900 per week.

40. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Reyes any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

41. Plaintiff Reyes was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

42. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Reyes regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

43. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Reyes an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

44. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Reyes, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Reyes's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

45. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Reyes (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

46. Plaintiff Reyes was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

47. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Reyes not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Reyes's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

48. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

49. Defendants paid Plaintiff Reyes his wages in cash.

50. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

51. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Reyes (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Reyes properly for his full hours worked.

52. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

53. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Reyes and other similarly situated former workers.

54. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Reyes and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

55. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Reyes and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

56. Plaintiff Reyes brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class members”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”).

57. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Reyes and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.
